

Application for Admission Under Parent/School Contract for Educational Services

The document has space for details of TWO learners only. If you are applying for more than that, please request the "Extra Learners Details" form from Reception.

Please Note:

- Submission of this form does not imply that your child has been accepted into the school; the process must be completed, and the Principal will make a final decision as to your registration.
- Correspondence regarding unsuccessful application will go no further than a letter of regret.
- Where deemed academically necessary your child will be required to do some baseline level checks.
- An interview between the Principal/Senior Staff member and parents/guardians and the child or children is mandatory.
- Please read each page carefully and initial / sign in full (all signatories) as indicated.
- We will not process incomplete applications, including missing reports, ID's and so forth.
- The language of instruction is English, and Afrikaans is currently the only First Additional Language.
- The school's fee schedule is published separately to this contract, but forms part of the agreement in terms of notification of fees. That includes the school's right to increase annual fees and levies or service costs either annually or as the Finance Committee deems reasonably necessary

Important for Non-South African Citizens in South Africa

- I have attached relevant Passport and visa/permit copies for my child[ren] and myself/ourselves. I/we acknowledge that the judgement does not preclude expectation of payment for services as guaranteed in the Constitution and relevant Acts and court findings for Independent Schools in South Africa, and that I/we are thereby bound subject to the same withdrawal of services for non-payment as any South African citizen or Permanent Resident.
- I/we/our family/my child[ren]/my wards are not in possession of documentation for South Africa, but claim right of application to education services through the High Court Finding 12th December 2019 regarding the rights of so-called illegal or undocumented minors' rights to education in South Africa. However, I/we acknowledge that the judgement does not preclude expectation of payment for services as guaranteed in the Constitution and relevant Acts and court findings for Independent Schools in South Africa, and that I/we are thereby bound subject to the same withdrawal of services for non-payment as any South African citizen or Permanent Resident.

For emphasis please remember that the Principal will not permit further processing of any incomplete application form. Incomplete may include where the details are all filled in but an additional document has not been supplied.

Vision of Kingdom Academy

To restore and establish the Kingdom values and principles from the Word of God so as to teach children how to live and make a difference in their families and the community.

Mission of Kingdom Academy

To influence children passionately on a daily basis with the Word of God, develop their given potential spiritually, emotionally, intellectually and physically, preparing them for life so that they will impact their families, friends and community by living a life characterized by Christ.

FAMILY INFORMATION

We fully understand that some people may feel reluctant to supply us with deeply sensitive personal information, but a school is legally described in law as being in loco parentis, a binding term that means in the place of a parent. That requires us to be your child's parent in your absence and we need to understand and deal with what their circumstances are.

GENERAL INDEMNITY:

1. This General Indemnity shall remain valid for the duration of my child[ren]'s attendance at the school.
2. I permit Kingdom Academy to administer basic first aid where deemed necessary.
3. I permit Kingdom Academy to arrange medical treatment in accordance with medical details herein supplied on my behalf in the event of an emergency.
4. I agree that I will not hold Kingdom Academy liable in respect of any injury or illness or related incident that arises out of attendance at the school or whilst any child covered herein participates in any activity with the school.
5. I herewith indemnify the school, its office bearers, its agents either past or present, either employed or volunteers, its contracted service providers either current or future of any liability regarding physical or other harm resulting from camps, sports, outings or any activities either compulsory or voluntary.
6. I do so whilst retaining the right to act in cases of demonstrable negligence.

Through my signature appended to the full Contract of which this Indemnity Clause forms part, I hereby acknowledge and consent to the above indemnity clause, state that all relevant information has been revealed by me/us whether specified or not, and that it is my/our full responsibility to inform the school of any change to my/our child/children's medical status.

ADMISSION AND ATTENDANCE

As prospective parent/s of Kingdom Academy, I/we accept the following terms and conditions for admission:

1. The Mission Statement of Kingdom Academy and desire of the school to fulfil the said mission.
2. That all children will be expected to attend all activities of both spiritual and academic nature during the school year. These activities include assemblies, Christian services, Christian instruction, field trips, etc. My child will not be exempt from any activity unless agreed upon or for medical reasons.
3. The school is manifestly Christian and that, even though other religions may be discussed in the curriculum, the school has no obligation to instruct a child in any other faith, but Christianity.
4. That our/my children will not miss any school for other religious activity; that our/my children will wear the uniform as prescribed by the school and will not request any relaxation hereof for whatever reason throughout their school career.
5. That the appearance and conduct of my/our children will support the expectations and general rules of the school. All individuals – Parents, Staff, Learners, Visitors and service suppliers - will be respected and treated respectfully irrespective of differences or preferences. If the school concludes that support of our ethos, values and activities is no longer supported by a parent or child, it will end this contract with requisite notice period and refuse further educational services.
6. That I/we will work together with the school, for the good of my/our child's well-being, and in recognition of the fact that well-being of others must be considered alongside mine/ours.
7. That the Attendance Policy will be adhered to.

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT AT KINGDOM ACADEMY

All parents / guardians / responsible parties hereby acknowledge the conditions of enrolment document and their commitment to the following points:

1. The signatories acknowledge and accept all conditions of enrolment and school policies either forming part of this document or made available in printed format through the Reception or via digital means on the website. The parents / guardians / responsible parties commit to compliance with the rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the school as pertaining to either learners or parents.
2. The signatories understand that Kingdom Academy is a ministry of the Kingdom Ministries of Christ and carries with it the spiritual mandate of Jesus Christ. Learners will be expected to attend the Christian activities of the School, and a Christian outlook will pervade in the classroom and approach to delivery of the curriculum.
3. Further to the above, all parties acknowledge that it has been revealed and therefore accepted under signature that the school's practice is Christian as outlined, and that the flavour hereof is governed under the auspices of KMC. While all other religions and streams are recognised and respected in terms of the Constitution of South Africa, also recognised under the Constitution is the school's right as a faith-based organisation to expect all to submit to "membership" requirement that no other religious or cultural practices will dictate uniform, appearance, attendance and behaviour aspects, and that failing this, either through existing or future personal conviction, will result in contracted services being withdrawn without prejudice, for the school will not consider change or exceptions in accommodation with said convictions, further espoused in the Statements of Faith below.
  - a. The inspiration of the Bible, equally in all parts and without error in its origin;
  - b. The one God, eternally existent Father, Son and Holy Spirit who created man by a direct immediate act;
  - c. The pre-existence, incarnation, virgin birth, sinless life, miracles, substitutionary death, bodily resurrection, ascension to Heaven and the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ;
  - d. The fall of man, the need of regeneration by the operation of the Holy Spirit on the basis of grace alone and the resurrection of all to life or damnation;
  - e. The spiritual relationship of all believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, living a life of righteous works, separated from the world and witnesses of His saving grace through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.
4. The signatories agree to uphold the good reputation and name of Kingdom Academy in every circumstance and acknowledge that parent behaviour has direct bearing on said good reputation and name, while the school shall always in turn endeavour to provide
  - a. A thoroughly Christian environment;
  - b. Born-again, spirit-filled staff members;
  - c. A biblical perspective on academic subjects;
  - d. A balanced view of the development of a learner to adulthood through discipleship in many areas and an educational programme that draws from different Christian sources to provide the best available.
  - e. Preparation of young men and women for life.
  - f. To meet at least the minimum requirements laid down by the Department of Education.
  - g. To enhance each learner's academic learning process in order to provide them with the opportunity to pursue the career of their choice.
5. The signatories accept that any personal property belonging to either learners / parents / guardians / responsible parties is not insured by Kingdom Academy, and that they have no claim against the School for loss or damage to such property.
6. The parents / guardians / responsible parties agree to indemnify and hold blameless the Church, the School Finance Team, its Principal and staff, and their authorized agents or representatives, against all claims, howsoever arising, whether claimable by us, or by the learner, or by any third party arising out of injury, death, loss, damage, costs or expense including legal costs, suffered by the learner while enrolled at the School, but subject to prevailing Laws of the Country.
7. All correspondence between the School and signatories will be done via e-mail, the learner [oldest and only], or via other digital media. The responsibility for noting receipt or otherwise of correspondence, especially accounts due for payment, lies with the signatories.
8. A non-refundable registration fee [changed at discretion and published annually] is payable to the School at the time a new application for admission is submitted.

9. If an application for admission is approved by the School, a non-refundable Admission Fee shall be paid to the School as per letter of acceptance. No learner will be admitted to the School unless the Admission Fee has been paid.
10. School Fees
- a. All fees and disbursements are payable to and recoverable by the School Finance Team of Kingdom Academy.
  - b. The School Finance Team may, at its sole discretion, grant refunds and make changes or adjustments to fees. There shall be no entitlement to any rebate of fees if the learner is absent for any portion of a term owing to illness or any other cause.
  - c. If the Principal, at any time, requires that a learner be removed from the school, full fees and disbursements payable in respect of such a learner will remain due to the School except to any extent decided by the School Finance Team.
  - d. The Signatories agree that one calendar months' notice must be given in writing before a Parent withdraws the learner from the school.
    - i. Such notice must reach the Principal on or before the first day of the month in which such withdrawal is to take place.
    - ii. The burden of proof of said notice is that of the parent / guardian. If no such notice is given or proven to have been given, they shall be liable for payment in full for the fees and disbursements for the following month whether the learner attends or not, irrespective of it coinciding with school holiday periods.
    - iii. Exceptions made by the School Finance Team to this condition shall not be cited as reason for same consideration to be granted to any other contracted party, and no discussion regarding claimed similarities for dispensation shall be accommodated.
  - e. The school reserves the right to cancel this agreement by giving the parents / guardians / responsible parties one month's notice in writing.
  - f. Fees are payable in advance on an annual, termly, or monthly basis.
    - i. Annual fees must be paid by the January date specified annually of the academic year or 5 days after admittance to the school. If annual fees are paid late the discount will be reversed.
    - ii. Term-in-advance fees are due within 5 days of the new term, failing which the discount will be reversed.
    - iii. Interest on fees paid in advance is accrued to the School and not to the account.
    - iv. Monthly fees are payable over 11 months, from 1st January to 1st November but must be paid by no later than the 7th day of each month. If parents / guardians / responsible parties fail to pay by this date, then an annually altered administration fee will be levied against their account.
    - v. If fees and any disbursements are not paid by the 7th day of the month in which they are due and not paid in full by the end of that same month, the school reserves the right to suspend services until the account is settled.
  - g. All school accounts for the year must be paid in full by 7th November of the academic year otherwise learners will not be accepted back the following year, unless special dispensation is granted by the Principal who will ensure that an Acknowledgement of Debt is in place.
  - h. Fees are reviewed on an annual basis and published in advance at the start to Term 4.
  - i. The responsibility for the education of a child falls on parents/guardians or, failing that, the State.
    - i. The school recognizes a child's right to education but refutes any responsibility for any adverse circumstances in a child's education should the child's legally-responsible adults or the State fail the child in the State's provision thereof.
    - ii. Where the school and responsible party enter an agreement to supply education services the former does so on a remunerative basis only without transfer of said responsibility being greater than an in loco parentis basis limited to educational activities typical of a school. Notwithstanding the beneficiary being a minor child, the contract for education services is with the child's responsible party.
    - iii. In accordance with the DBE's Rights and Responsibilities of Independent Schools, as well as various precedent-setting judgements and other relevant Acts, the School will withdraw said education services from parties who fail to settle accounts in accordance with these conditions of enrolment.
  - j. The School does not withhold reports or Transfer Cards. In cases of fee issues, they will be available via an appointment with the Principal. It is incumbent on the responsible party to respond to such

- correspondence. Where a learner leaves the school with parents owing fees, the school will communicate all results in writing directly to the new school via clearly-labelled format stating: "Draft report: fees unpaid."
- k. If any amount is not paid within the agreed term, the parents / guardians / responsible parties shall be liable for interest at the maximum rate permitted by law from time to time, including, without limiting the generality thereof, the Usury Act No. 73 of 1968.
  - l. Any reference to accounts includes any compulsory loans or levies.
  - m. In the event of the School instructing its attorney to collect any amount owing to the School, the parents / guardians / responsible parties shall be liable for all legal costs incurred by the School on the scale as between attorney and own client including collection commission.
11. The parents / guardians / responsible parties hereby nominate the residential address appearing on the application form as their chosen domicilium citandi et executandi for services of all notices or legal process in connection with any claim/s arising from this application. The parents / guardians / responsible parties shall be entitled to give one month's written notice to the School to change such address, provided that the new address is a physical address in the Republic of South Africa.
  12. Any agreement purporting to vary the terms of this agreement or any consensual cancellation, shall not be valid unless in writing and signed by responsible parties and a duly authorized representative of the School.
  13. Responsible parties of Non-South African citizen learners are required to furnish proof of their child being eligible to study in the Republic and undertake at their own recognizance and expense to ensure that said eligibility remains current if necessary. The school is required to advise the Department of Home Affairs when a learner is no longer at this school or falls out of their legal right to be registered. The school will be guided by the Department regarding changes to regulations concerning undocumented minors.
  14. Protection of Personal Information Act (2013) provision. When you sign this contract, you give us your consent to:
    - a) Collect, store and share credit information about you, the payer, and any divorced or separated parent responsible for paying fees;
    - b) Inform any other school or educational institution to which you propose to send your child of any outstanding fees;
    - c) Collect and store names and contact details about yourself and your child and share names we authorize for school-related purposes. We undertake to only share this information to the extent and contact details about yourself and your child with other parents, legal guardians, staff or other people needed to: manage relationships between the school, parents, legal guardians, and current learners; provide references; communicate with the body of former learners.
    - c) Include photographs, with or without name, of your child in school publications, or in press releases to celebrate the school's or your child's activities, achievements or successes.
    - d) Supply information and a reference for your child to any educational institution which you propose your child may attend. We will take care to ensure that all information we supply about your child is accurate and that any opinion we give on their ability, aptitude and character is fair. However, we are not responsible for any loss you or your child may suffer from correct statements of fact we make or opinions we reasonably give.
    - e) If you wish to withdraw your consent, you must notify us in writing. Any consent withdrawal that hampers the school's dealings with responsible parties or their children in matters that are professional, lawful and within reasonable expectation by the very nature of it being a school may result in withdrawal of education services via the cancellation of contract without prejudice and with rights to all penalties thereto.
    - f) Your initial refusal to agree to this POPI clause will result in the refusal of services at Kingdom Academy.
    - g) I understand and accept the application of the Protection of Private Information Bill outlines as the school's practice and that the full POPI Act's application on the D6 / Website is available for my reading. Through my signature appended to the full Contract of which this POPI clause forms part, I hereby acknowledge and consent to the POPI clause, state that all relevant information has been revealed by me/us whether specified or not, and that it is my/our full responsibility to inform the school of any change to my/our continued acceptance hereof, and that the school will enforce 16.f should I no longer consent as laid out.
  - 17) Policies, Procedures and Practices
    - a) We acknowledge that the School hereby has informed us that all school policies and their allied practices and procedures are available
      - i) In hard copy at the Reception
      - ii) Digitally on the website
    - b) Amongst many others, the policies, procedures and practices and their allied forms include:
      - i) Disciplinary Procedures
      - ii) Homework

- iii) Assessment
- iv) Grievance procedures
- v) Extramural Activities
- vi) Uniform and Appearance
- vii) Bullying
- viii) ePolicy
- ix) ... and others.
- c) We concede the impracticability of all policies, procedures and practices being included in print with this Contract and acknowledge that they [as current at signing or amended in the course of time] none-the-less form part of the agreement under which we Contract ourselves.
- d) We acknowledge it to be our responsibility to familiarize ourselves therewith prior to appending our signature hereto, or that we knowingly sign this contract without having done so and yet will remain bound to and by such anyway.
- e) We acknowledge that we will keep abreast of inevitable change that will be made to various policies, procedures and practices, and that we will remain bound to and by such.

Declaration

I recognise that the school has well trained staff and I have confidence in their ability to perform the educational functions for my child at their discretion. I pledge to follow prescribed grievance routes in dealing with issues that my child may report.

- I further realize that building strong relationship with my child's educator to aid in the training of my child, is as much my responsibility as it is the school's.
- I will partner with staff in discipline, and lay a spiritual foundation through Godly example in the home,
- I will follow through with any work, assignments or slips to be signed.
- I will see that my child/children reach school on time.
- I will send a written excuse for absence or tardiness.
- I will co-operate in training my child/children to respect school property.
- I will attend parent evenings in support of the partnership between school and us.

It is my intention to abide by the decisions and to support the rules of the school.
